

DIN EN 12390-16:2019-12 (E)

Testing hardened concrete - Part 16: Determination of the shrinkage of concrete

---

| Contents                                                                              | Page |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| European foreword .....                                                                      | 3           |
| 1      Scope .....                                                                           | 5           |
| 2      Normative references .....                                                            | 5           |
| 3      Terms and definitions .....                                                           | 5           |
| 4      Principle .....                                                                       | 6           |
| 5      Apparatus .....                                                                       | 7           |
| 6      Test specimens .....                                                                  | 9           |
| 7      Procedure .....                                                                       | 9           |
| 8      Calculation and expression of results .....                                           | 10          |
| 9      Test report .....                                                                     | 10          |
| 10     Precision .....                                                                       | 11          |
| Annex A (normative) Simplified procedure for the determination of autogenous shrinkage ..... | 12          |
| Bibliography .....                                                                           | 13          |